Field Trips = Learning Our Culture!

Bonita comes to us from the Philippines. There she went to high school and one year of college before it became necessary to get a job to help the family. And what a job! Bonita went to Japan and performed in "Cultural Dance" for 10 years. After that, Bonita came to the U.S. and Florida's West Coast. Her English was limited when she arrived, and she knew very little about our culture.

It was Bonita's daughter who encouraged her to go to the North Port Library to get advice on how to study English. Now Bonita is paired with LVSSC volunteer tutor, Nancy Nasser. Bonita also studies English in group classes.

Because Bonita is learning vocabulary, tenses, and pronunciation in her classes, Nancy decided to focus on American culture. To do this, the two take frequent field trips. And they discuss everything around them in detail. For example, an immigrant may have the funds for a down payment on a house and has calculated the payments but knows nothing about closing and interest costs. She may have cash to put in a bank account but no idea how to open an account and make deposits and withdrawals. At the bank, with prompting from Nancy, Bonita opened an account and made a bank deposit. In another situation, Bonita didn't understand what the term 'tip' meant on a restaurant bill. Even lunch is a learning experience!

On the day LVSSC interviewed Bonita for this article, she had just finished giving a short talk about her American experience and her relationship with "Ms. Nancy". The audience, The Woman's Club of Venice, was delighted with Bonita. Her presentation was well arranged and well delivered.

Bonita has goals, including getting:

- ✓ A driver's license
- ✓ A Green Card
- ✓ Certification as CNA
- ✓ American Citizenship

She and Nancy have been to Motor Vehicles Administration and the Agency for Immigration. They are such good friends and plan to work through this list together. Literacy does change lives, and not just for the student! Let's hear a Shout Out for Bonita and Nancy!

Literacy Changes Lives!

Literacy Volunteers forms its LVSSC Foundation for Planned Giving

Do you ever wonder where the funds come from to operate the Literacy Volunteers of South Sarasota County?

With three part-time coordinators and a very engaged board of directors, efforts are continually underway to obtain funds to pay our operating costs, as we serve an expanding client base of 350 with 180 volunteer tutors and class instructors. From card parties, to United Way support, miscellaneous grants and a new Author Literacy Event, the Literacy Volunteers of South Sarasota County are in a constant fund-raising state.....but what about the long-range support?

With this in mind, we have formed a 501(c)3 Foundation with the hope of attracting some planned giving legacy gifts from committed individuals who see the need to support our ongoing costs. Gifts of cash, stocks, bonds, real estate/land, life insurance and other substantial gifts may be given with a tax deduction benefit for the donor.

Over the next months you will hear more about the opportunity to help make a legacy gift to our organization.

For more information, please contact Jim Patterson at jcpatterson46@gmail.com or Joe Pokorney at Joe@lancastermcginty.com or speak with any board member.

President's Comments

Following a rather quiet summer, the pace of English Tutoring is speeding up and we have a few changes in the air. After 5 years as the Venice Coordinator, Sharon Betterton has left us to spend more time with her family. In addition, Debi Hofer, one of our board members who was very involved in our database conversion to the ProLit LACES database has moved to the east coast. We have been successful in recruiting a new Venice Coordinator and two new board members over the past few weeks. Peter Norrman, one of our experienced tutors, started as the Venice coordinator in early November.

I want to welcome our two newest board members, Lisa Hart and Helen Russette, who bring added skills and enthusiasm to our board.

With the return of snowbirds and vacationing students, we are again busy with tutor training, continuing education workshops, one-on-one tutoring and numerous study groups. Thanks to the Plantation Community Foundation, our new Computer English Learning Lab is attracting tutors and students.

Welcome to our New Venice Coordinator

We are sorry to have lost our beloved Venice coordinator, Sharon Betterton. Sharon left us in October to devote more time to her family. Sharon was a delightful colleague and will be missed.

The search committee for our new coordinator was led by Nancy Pike. Several excellent candidates expressed interest, making it a tough decision. Peter Norrman, who is one of our tutors, has agreed to take the Venice position; and we are all pleased. Peter has had a very interesting career; three actually. He worked as an engineer on the Lunar Module for Grumman and his name is actually on the Moon! Later he worked in real estate and insurance. Before retiring, Peter was the director of a non-profit, Swedish Home for the Aged. It seems he can fit in just about anywhere. Once Peter moves to the new Venice library office on Dec 15th, please stop in and welcome him. Pictured with Peter is Kim Pike, our project manager for StartNow. Kim has been filling in at the Venice office and was there to greet Peter and provide some orientation.

Nancy Pike led the search for the new coordinator with assistance from board members Penny Corell and Judith McGinty

Continuing Education for Tutors

Last year we had some short workshops and a few coffee klatches for our tutors. These were very well received as they brought like-minded volunteers together to learn and share ideas. And that was the intention. Now we are offering even more opportunities, and we urge our tutors to attend 2 or 3 this year. There is a schedule of all activities on pages 9 and 10. As others are added the tutors will be notified.

Welcome our Two New Board Members

Helen Russette

Helen earned a PharmD, and then practiced clinical and consulting pharmacy at Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville. After retiring, she volunteered with US Coast Guard Auxiliary and Clay County Literacy Coalition where she also served on the Board. Today she lives with her husband in IslandWalk and continues literacy tutoring at the North Port Library. Helen looks forward to serving on our board.

Lisa Hart

Lisa is currently Director of Finance and Operations for Crossref (crossref.org) and on the Audit Committee for Open Research Contributor ID and Audit Committee for the Society for Scholarly Publishing. She was on the Boards of the New England Society of Association Executives and the American Society of Association Executives. She also served on the Boards of Mass. Families Organizing for Change, Department of Developmental Service Family Support Council, and DDS Transportation Task Force, Massachusetts State.

Lisa moved to Venice 2017 with husband Sean and son Erik, who resides at Loveland Village. She became a LVSSC Tutor in 2018.

Debi's Baby

The new LVSSC TeamUp calendar's list of events and tutor continuing education courses is found on pages 9 and 10. At our web site www.literacychangeslives.org, you can find the entire calendar. This is an extensive list of activities that, until recently, was kept in our heads and pockets. Each of us often knew just enough to accomplish our tasks.

We had the good fortune to have Debi Hoefler on our board to advise us about uses of newer computer technology. Debi implemented TeamUp, a Web-based calendar to keep all us up-to-date on all of our numerous and various activities. The calendar has allowed us to be more efficient and more informed about all that's happening in this growing volunteer organization. This is only one of many technology related contributions Debi made to LVSSC. We will miss her energy, ability and enthusiasm now that she has moved to the other coast. But she's only a phone call away!

A Big Shout Out!

For many years LVSSC have enjoyed the privilege of using space at Sarasota County Libraries. We have office space in both the Venice and North Port libraries. We use conference and study rooms for training and tutoring in those facilities as well as rooms in the Jacaranda Library. When the Venice Library was closed and demolished, LVSSC was brought along with them to the temporary space. And now we are relocating in the brand-new, gorgeous Venice Library on the Cultural Campus on Nokomis Avenue South. The hospitality of the Sarasota Library System knows no bounds.

More recently, LVSSC found the open doors of two other organizations. Venice Area Beautification (VABI.com) has a lovely facility which is made available to us for training and orientation sessions. Visit the VABI web site to learn more about the awesome projects they support to make the city so attractive.

And West Villages Office Park (mywestvillages.com), located on U.S. 41 between Venice and North Port, has been more than generous with their very comfortable and attractive training spaces. Their location is ideal for populations in both areas. We are again so fortunate and thankful.

Without these organizations supporting us, we would not be able to provide the much-needed literacy services to residents of South Sarasota County. Thank you one and all!

The Move is On!

Our Venice Library and office will close on November 18th to allow the volunteers to move our office equipment and books to the LVSSC Office in the new William H. Jervy Jr. Library at 300 Nokomis Avenue South, Venice. The last day to collect any needed materials is November 17th. The Grand Opening of the new Venice Library is December 15th at 9:00 AM. LVSSC will occupy a new office and two study rooms in the new Library.

Grand Opening of Our Computer English Learning Lab

On November 9th, the ribbon was officially cut on our new lab; purchased through another generous gift from the Plantation Community Foundation. While we have been using the lab to teach our tutors how to orient students to its uses for awhile; now it is officially open. Representatives from both Plantation and LVSSC joined to admire this state-of-the-art portable computer lab and all the new language software including Rosetta Stone and Rocket English.

Once a student knows how to use all the components, s(he) can make appointments to come to the StartNow office in North Port or the Venice Library office to practice their language skills and learn new ones. There are at least 3 language programs to explore and icons for many online language sites. An additional benefit of the lab is that the users will become more proficient in the general use of computers and the internet.

Our lab has 8 MacBook computers, headsets and microphones for practice and feedback. Both offices provide access to the internet. There are study carrels in the North Port office.

This lab is not meant as a substitute for a tutor or group class but, it is an excellent adjunct learning method. In our next issue of English Express, you will see an update and the reactions of the students.

We thank Plantation Community Foundation for this generous gift and pledge to put it to good use in teaching our numerous students.

Orientation is The Key

Several months ago we began to conduct an orientation for those who were interested in becoming LVSSC tutors. It was very well received and now has become prerequisite for the 2-day tutor training course. This one-hour session answers many questions for the new volunteers. With this in-depth information, the potential tutor can make an informed decision about going further. The orientations are scheduled during the week before tutor training. They are held in both North Port and Venice. Call either of the Coordinators to register for Orientation.

Newcomer Day

LVSSC recently participated in the North Port Newcomer Day. This is a great venue for our organization to present our volunteer activities to people new to the community. As many of these are recent retirees we are delighted to meet and greet them as they look for meaningful retirement activities. Thank you, Jean Smuckler and Ann Magliacano for representing us.

The Island Walk Volunteer Event

Island Walk held a Volunteers Fair on November 8th. Kim Pike and Paddy Padmanabhan represented us. This event provides a venue for volunteer organizations to present their causes to potential new recruits. Several people signed our guest list and will be contacted soon.

Speakers Bureau

Paddy Padmanabhan is the Director of LVSSC Speakers Bureau. This small group of volunteers looks for speaking opportunities at all types of organizations, from garden clubs to church groups. We have a well-organized presentation and on occasion, one of our students assists by telling their stories of goals accomplished and the journey. If you would like to become one of our speakers or know of an organization that would be interested in presentation, please contact Paddy Padmanabhan at: paddy0206@gmail.com
